Top 5 Benefits of Studying Abroad

SATISFY CREDIT REQUIREMENTS

Get out into the world and earn credit toward your degree at the same time! Receive your transcript directly from our fully-accredited university partner abroad upon completion of the program.

EXPERIENCE CROSS-CULTURAL LEARNING

Studying abroad takes learning well beyond the classroom, giving you opportunities to engage with new languages, cultures, environments and people. Gain confidence as you navigate new places and relationships. Make memories and friendships that will last a lifetime.

USE FINANCIAL AID

Use financial aid and scholarships to help fund your study abroad experience just like you do at your home university.

CHOOSE YOUR LANGUAGE OF STUDY

Whether you have language skills you want to use, or you prefer to operate in English (removing the need for language pre-requisites), there are study programs that offer instruction in both - even in countries that are not English speaking! Remember to ask which language your courses are offered in as you make your decision!

BOOST YOUR RESUME OR GRAD SCHOOL APPS

More and more employers and graduate programs are looking for candidates with demonstrated cultural fluency and global awareness. Study abroad experiences take place within a new cultural context and introduce you to novel ways of thinking and working.
